

DAILY SENTINEL

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19, 1864

THE DAILY SENTINEL is sent by the early morning express and freight train, and delivered to subscribers in adjacent towns about the same time it is distributed in this city. This enables readers at a distance from the Capital of Indiana, to get the news of the day from a reliable source before they receive it through papers published elsewhere. News dealers and carriers in any of the towns on railroads entering at Indianapolis, will be supplied with the SENTINEL on as good terms as any other paper. Clubs for the Daily will be supplied at Agents' rates. Orders are solicited.

A Mistake.

The impression appears to prevail among many Democrats that we have no Job Office connected with the SENTINEL. This is a mistake. There is no office in the city that is so well prepared to do all kinds of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING as we (except large bill posters), and we will feel under obligations to all Democrats, not only in the city, but in the State, for any order they send to our office. We have no public printer to depend on to do the paper—we ask the party to assist with their work, as far as they can. We can do as good work, and on as good terms, as any other office.

SPEECHES OF Hendricks and Voorhees.

The speech of Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, before the Democratic Convention on the 15th of January, 1862, and the speech of Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, in the House of Representatives, February 20, on the same subject, are published in a pamphlet of sixteen pages, including both speeches. Each one is among the ablest delivered on the present crisis, and should be placed in the hands of every citizen. We reprint a large edition to supply the increasing demand.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

The steamer W. W. Crawford left Pittsburg Landing on the morning of the 17th inst., with the last sick and wounded Indians.

MAJORITY NOTICE.—There will be a special meeting of Indianapolis Chapter No. 5, this (Tuesday) evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

Belser, who showed the car on the track at Sullivan, by which Prof. Fletcher met his death, has been arrested, and we hope he will be dealt with according to law.

Judge Treat, of Illinois, presides over the United States District Court, now in session in this city, in place of Judge Huntington, of Indiana, absent in Cuba.

There is a case or two of small-pox in this city. We urge upon all the immediate and pressing necessity of having their children vaccinated. The Board of Health should see that it does not spread.

ORPHANS' SOCIETY.—All persons subscribing to the funds of the above Society, at the Anniversary Meeting at Market Hall, held last Sabbath night, are requested to call promptly and pay the amounts at Fletcher & Sharp's Bank.

Hon. Noah H. Swaine, of Ohio, the successor of Judge McLean, presides over the United States District Court now in session in this city.

A new Baptist Church, to take the place of the old one burnt down on the corner of Madison and Maryland streets, is to be erected during the coming summer on the corner of New York and Pennsylvania streets.

ALL AMMUNITION GONE.—On Sunday last forty car loads of ammunition were shipped from the arsenal in this city to Pittsburg Landing. Every available mule and wagon and all the cartridges were sent. Still, the arsenal is so low as to be used by patriotic citizens against rebels and traitors in arms against the Government—the best Government the world ever saw.

The sale of that beautiful suburban tract of land of seven acres on the Madison gravel road, one mile south of the city, has been postponed till Monday, May 26th, at 2 o'clock P. M., at which time it will be sold without any reserve. For particulars apply to Wiley's real estate office.

VALUABLE CITY LOT.—We call special attention to the sale on Saturday next, the 24th inst., at the Court House, at 2 P. M., of fifty feet of the east side of lot 7, in square 47, on Market street, part of the late residence of Douglas Maquire, deceased, and immediately west of the residence of the Government, a splendid and convenient and desirable lot is offered for sale.

THE AFFRAY AT CAMP MONROE ON FRIDAY LAST.—It was J. M. White, of Rogers' Hangers' Kentucky regiment, who was killed by a bullet of wood in the hands of Daniel Webster of a Tennessee regiment. In the confusion and excitement of the occasion, the names of the parties were not ascertained. The body of the deceased is now in jail and awaits judgment by the civil authorities.

The well known retail grocery establishment at No. 3 West Washington street, Indianapolis, has recently been purchased by the enterprising grocers, Messrs. Vineland & Sawyer, the men who reduced the price of Coal Oil in Columbus from sixty to forty cents. For a consideration they have been able to give the citizens of Columbus. We wish them success in their new locality. A Greene of this place is stopping with them.—Columbus Rep.

We clip the following from an Evansville dispatch dated May 18: "The Citizen, our State hospital boat, arrived early Saturday morning with about two hundred sick Unionists, and was met by the citizens of Evansville and sent home. The Citizen returned again at 11 o'clock Saturday night with thirteen surgeons, fifteen nurses, and well supplied with hospital stores, in charge of Wm. Hannemann, President of the Evansville Medical Association. She also took a large number of patients returning to their regiments.

POWERS' HOTEL.—We notice in our exchanges that the daily routine of the new Hotel kept here with some success. The hotel is one of the first-class hotels. We are pleased to see among the announcements the names of some of our best merchants who make this hotel their stopping place when they visit New York city. Its advantages of situation—on Broadway directly opposite the Astor House—its moderate price, only one dollar and fifty cents per day—and the style in which it is kept, all commend it to Mr. H. L. Powers, are daily appreciated, and commend it to the favor of the traveling public.

UNTERBACHER'S BAPTIST.—The Journal says that the lovely young lady, "the daughter of the Baptists" of Circuses. We long to read that the beautiful words are the Journal's. John Unterbacher is a reverend and worshipful apostle in the cause of a non-resistance, and is down by the Journal as a traveling guitar player. Jesus Christ is the Savior of all the world, the Son of God, by whose precious blood redemption is made for all who believe in the blessed Christ, by the sacrificial and glorious death, is compared to a roving circus company. Angels and ministers of grace defend us if in thought, word or deed we should ever prove so treasonous to every principle of all mankind—to everything sacred, human and divine.

MAN SHOT—A PROBABLE FATAL AFFRAY.—Night before last about one o'clock, John Durbin, a returned soldier, was encountered near the corner of Washington and Illinois streets, by Simon Gaston and John Downing, otherwise known as "Louisville Jack," and shot. We are told that three balls were put into Durbin's body, one below the left nipple. Last night he was lying speechless, bleeding at the mouth, with every indication of a speedy dissolution. Gaston was yesterday arrested and lodged in jail. His accomplice is still at large. The cause of the affray in Durbin, as we are given to understand, was his informing a saloon keeper that "Louisville Jack" and Gaston had abstracted a keg when his back was turned, and had drank it. Yesterday Durbin's deposit was taken by the saloon keeper by the authorities, and the judicial investigation will develop the facts.

DEATHS AT LOUISVILLE OF INDIANA SOLDIERS.

Morris L. Evans, co. K, 8th; John Barker, co. G, 2d Cavalry; Thos. Reed, co. I, 11th.

Cum gratia, the Pulaski confederate, received another fine lot of strawberries last evening, which he will serve up with his clear quill cream.

The public are invited to day at 9 1/2 o'clock to our rooms, No. 56 East Washington street, to an auction sale of a variety of hand-painted and printed, various, pictures, double and single dials, roses in great variety, &c., &c. FEATHERSTON & BAKER, Auctioneers.

LATEST FROM CORINTH.—W. H. Ellis and J. E. Robinson, of Lafayette, arrived in the city last night from Pittsburg Landing. They brought the most encouraging reports from our army. We have, according to their understanding of the matter, Beauregard's army flanked on the left and on the right. We are free to face him. It is the opinion of Messrs. Robinson and Ellis that there will be no battle at Corinth. Beauregard is well aware, they think, that we have him on the left. Sigel and Curtis have formed a junction with Halleck. Beauregard after steamboat conveying their troops, were met on Saturday last ascending the Tennessee. From all accounts given by deserters and spies, Beauregard's army is almost completely demoralized. A whole brigade of Irish troops, it is said, had mutinied, and were surrounded and placed in the front of the line of battle with artillery in their rear, where they were to be completely annihilated. Beauregard's army has been living on half rations for the past ten days. They have plenty of sugar, coffee, molasses and rice, but that is all. Beauregard can fall back only upon Mobile, Jackson, and Corinth. He is in a position whenever we choose to possess ourselves of it. Our Gulf fleet probably are this possess Mobile, as we have possessed New Orleans. And we are in shelling distance of the railroad leading to Jackson. What is Beauregard to do? There will be no fight there, the gentlemen say. They surmise that there will be no surrender either, but that Beauregard's army of one hundred and sixty thousand men will disband. Halleck, they say, has the rebel General completely in his toils, and the rebel General knows it, and consequently the campaign of the Mississippi will be terminated in a Christian like manner without much bloodshed or slaughter. We rejoice to hear this, but only fear it is too good news to be true.

Governor Morton, it seems, according to their gentlemen, is regarded by the whole army as the preliminary symptom of a bad wheeler. He makes his appearance. This time his presence was on the ground early.

Gen. Halleck, however, it is hinted, don't pay much attention to his Excellency, who, instead of being treated to headquarters, is to dine at a sutler's stand. Halleck probably thinks that Morton had better be at home attending to his own business, and we guess Halleck is about right. All the ammunition that Morton ordered in the arsenal the other day, will probably be sent back, if there should, as Messrs. Ellis and Robinson think, be no battle at Corinth. We are glad the railroads, under the administration of General Sumner, are running so well. They are the last of the gentlemen who bring us all this intelligence heard of Morton was that, more general than hurt, he was somewhere within Major General Van Wallace's lines, Adjutant General Sumner, and his staff, were within a hundred thousand brave and patriotic citizens there, facing the enemy with muskets in their hands, neither his Excellency or his Adjutant seem to amount to a circumstance.

Messrs. Ellis and Robinson left the city for Lafayette last evening.

Cavalry Recruits.

There is an office in this city, No. 139 Syracuse street, where recruits are enlisted for the old cavalry regiments, known as the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th United States cavalry. All these regiments are now in the army, equipped, armed and equipped, and commanded by experienced officers under whose control each regiment has made an enviable record of its own in the history of our past wars. The recruits are to be sent to the front, where they will be with the best of the old regiments. An intelligent recruit under proper training, availing himself of the examples of discipline, will in a short time become a good soldier and secure a promotion. This is especially true of the cavalry, who are to be sent to the front, where they will be with the best of the old regiments.
